REGULAR SEASON PRACTICE ACCESS

- Standard practice time will be 11:30 a.m. and game day skates at 10:30 a.m. Please note practice times may vary. We will make every effort to inform you in the event of a schedule change.
- The dressing room will remain closed before and during practice. When the dressing room door is closed, access is not permitted.
- Access to the dressing room will be granted following practice per NHL regulations: five minutes following first group of players (who participated in the practice) leaving the ice for no less than 30 minutes. In the event of a meeting, the dressing room will be open until the meeting begins and again following the meeting for at least 30 minutes.
- Media access is permitted in the main locker room and foyer.
- Media access to the home players' bench is not permitted during practice.
- Bob Hartley will be available within 20 minutes following practice in a media conference format in a designated area near the dressing room. Individual interview (one-on-one) requests will only be granted in special circumstances and on advance notice.

GAME DAY AND POST-GAME

- On request, players will be available to the media for interviews for a 30 minute period up to 90 minutes prior to game time. Preferably, media interviews should be conducted following the morning practice.
- Requests for players/coaches for broadcast pre-tape interviews must be made to the communications department before 11:00 a.m. on game day. In the case of "quick hits", please provide player request with at least two minutes remaining in the period with a back-up option.
- Dressing room will open to media five minutes after the game with same areas as stated above available for interviews.
- Bob Hartley will be available (in a media conference format) within 20 minutes of the conclusion of the game. The post-game media conference will take place in the media lounge. The dressing room will remain open during the coach's press conference.
- Please request credentials 24 hours in advance of the game in which you have been assigned to cover. In the case of full-time credential media, please inform us, when possible, if you are not attending a particular game.

PHOTOGRAPHY/TELEVISION CAMERAS

- Please follow credential guidelines outlined above. Freelance photographers will only be granted credentials when on assignment from a media outlet.
- Photographers/Cameras are permitted to shoot Flames practice sessions from the visiting team bench or stands only.
- Television rights holders may place one handheld camera on the bench during warm-up once the players have taken the ice (local – home bench only).
- Photographers will be guaranteed one location for the first period. Other period shooting locations will be coordinated during the game. Please respect sight lines of spectators at all times.
- Any live news shots utilizing the playing surface as a backdrop must conclude 30 minutes before television broadcast begins.
- As per NHL policy, non-rights holders are not permitted to record highlights during games. Highlights will be available through Telus Operations Center: 800-332-1083.

WEB/INTERNET

- Those media outlets that have been granted credentials and also have web media coverage will be provided with more detailed guidelines before the start of the 2012-13 season.

FLAMES MEDIA INFORMATION LINE

- For information and times for Flames practices, news conferences and other events call the Flames Media Information Line at 403-777-3666 for a prerecorded message.
- * This is a summary of the comprehensive NHL media/broadcast access policies.

HISTORY OF THE FRANCHISE

The Calgary Flames will mark their 32nd NHL season and 33rd year in Calgary with the 2012–13 campaign.

Since their arrival in 1980, the team has captivated hockey fans with their on-ice success, including a Stanley Cup victory in 1989, while establishing a solid off-ice reputation for community involvement through millions of dollars in contributions to charitable organizations throughout southern Alberta.

On May 21, 1980, Nelson Skalbania and a group of Calgary entrepreneurs consisting of Doc and B.J. Seaman, Harley Hotchkiss, Norm Green, Ralph Scurfield and Norman Kwong announced the acquisition of the Atlanta Flames franchise and declared their intention to relocate the team to Alberta.

In August 1981, Skalbania sold his interest to the Calgary contingent, and the remaining six local businessmen continued to hold exclusive ownership until June 15, 1990, when Norm Green left to become owner of the Minnesota North Stars (now Dallas Stars). On August 8, 1994, further revisions to the ownership structure saw the addition of six new investors and the departure of two of the team's original owners (Norman Kwong and Sonia Scurfield).

Subsequent changes have resulted in the current group of owners: Chairman N. Murray Edwards, owner and president of Edco Financial Holdings Ltd.; Alvin G. Libin, president and CEO of Balmon Investments Ltd.; Allan P. Markin, founder of the Pure North S'Energy Foundation; Jeffrey J. McCaig, chairman and CEO of Trimac Transportation and chairman and director of Bantrel Company; and Clayton H. Riddell, CEO of MGM Energy Corp. and chairman of the board of Perpetual Energy Inc. and Trilogy Energy Corp.; as well as Byron J. Seaman, one of the ownership group's original members.

On October 9, 1980, in their inaugural game at the Stampede Corral, the Calgary Flames battled the Quebec Nordiques to a 5–5 tie. The team played a total of 146 league, playoff and exhibition games at the Corral, losing only 28 regular season and four playoff games in three seasons, before moving across the street to the Saddledome in October 1983. The Flames formally assumed management of the Saddledome on August 1, 1994, and after extensive renovations, the venue was reopened on October 25, 1995.

During the past 32 years, the Calgary Flames have become a premier NHL franchise. The team's first appearance in the Cup finals was in 1986 and their most recent in 2004, when they electrified the city with their inspirational playoff run. The pinnacle of the Flames' success was being crowned Stanley Cup champions for the 1988–89 season. In addition, they have captured two Presidents' Trophies (1987–88, 1988–89), three Clarence Campbell Conference titles (1985–86, 1988–89, 2003–04), two Smythe Division championships (1985–86, 1988–89), two Pacific Division titles (1993–94, 1994–95) and a Northwest Division title (2005–06), in addition to numerous NHL individual and team honours.

In 2003–04, the Flames launched an exciting new red jersey as their home sweater, and it would become the top-selling jersey launch in NHL history. At the start of the 2007–08 season, the Flames jersey was modified to include minor striping changes and shoulder patches featuring the Canada and Alberta flags. For 2010–11, a vintage jersey based on sweater worn by the 1989 Stanley Cup winning team was officially adopted as the team's third jersey.

A highlight of the 2010–11 season was the 2011 NHL Heritage Classic at McMahon Stadium on February 20, 2011. For their outdoor matchup against the Montreal Canadiens, the Flames wore uniforms inspired by the Calgary Tigers, the city's first major professional hockey team. A crowd of 41,022 spectators watched the Flames shut out the Habs 4–0.

On November 8, 2010, the Flames family celebrated the posthumous induction of Doc Seaman to the Hockey Hall of Fame in the Builder Category. Doc became the second member of the Flames ownership group to be elected to the Hall, joining the late Harley Hotchkiss, who received the same honour in 2006.

The Calgary Flames Limited Partnership became the majority ownership group and operating partner of the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League on March 29, 2012. This move augments the partnership's already substantial commitment to successful community sports assets, which include the Calgary Flames, the Calgary Hitmen of the Western Hockey League, the Abbotsford Heat of the American Hockey League, and the Calgary Roughnecks of the National Lacrosse League.

When they brought the Flames to Calgary in 1980, the ownership group's mandate was to ensure that the team would have a positive impact on the quality of life in Southern Alberta. A natural outcome of this mission was the creation of the charitable arm of the hockey club, the Flames Foundation for Life. Since its inception, the Foundation, along with its partners and donors, has raised millions of dollars for education, health and medical research, and amateur and grassroots sports.

CALGARY FLAMES OWNERS

N. Murray
EDWARDS

N. Murray Edwards is owner and president of Edco Financial Holdings Ltd., a merchant banker since 1988. He is a leading investor in, and managing director and chairman or vice chairman of, numerous publicly traded companies including Canadian Natural Resources Limited, and Ensign Energy Services Inc. Today, these companies employ over 15,000 individuals. He is also a chairman, director and co-owner of the Calgary Flames Hockey Club.

Mr. Edwards graduated with a Bachelor of Commerce from the University of Saskatchewan with Great Distinction and a Bachelor of Laws with Honours from the University of Toronto. After moving to Calgary in 1983, he became a lawyer, and later a partner, with Burnet, Duckworth & Palmer, a Calgary-based law firm.

At the community level, Mr. Edwards is a member of the Council of Champions of the Calgary Children's Initiatives and the Canadian Council of Chief Executives. He is on the Board of Directors of the C.D. Howe Institute.

Alvin G.
LIBIN

Alvin G. Libin is a native Calgarian with business interests in real estate, oil and gas and financial services. Mr. Libin is the president and chief executive officer of Balmon Investments Ltd., a private management services and investment company. He has a strong commitment to the City of Calgary and to the Province of Alberta and has provided leadership in various volunteer positions.

In 2003, Mr. Libin and his wife Mona, through the Alvin and Mona Libin Foundation, established the Libin Cardiovascular Institute of Alberta in partnership with the University of Calgary and Alberta Health Services. Its mission is to provide world-class cardiovascular health care, education and research for southern Alberta.

Mr. Libin is past chairman of the Alberta Ingenuity Fund, a foundation created by the Government of Alberta to stimulate and support science and engineering research for the benefit of Albertans. He also serves as a director of several corporate and community boards.

Alvin G. Libin is an Officer of the Order of Canada and holds an Honorary Doctors of Laws degree from the University of Calgary. He was inducted into the Alberta Order of Excellence in 2004.

Clayton H.
RIDDELL

Clayton H. Riddell was introduced as a new member of the Calgary Flames ownership group on August 29, 2003. His participation, combined with the ongoing commitment of the existing owners of the team, provides strength, continuity and stability to the organization.

Mr. Riddell graduated from the University of Manitoba with a Bachelor of Science, Honors degree in Geology. In May 2004, he received an Honorary Doctor of Science degree from the University of Manitoba.

He has been the chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Paramount Resources Ltd., a publicly traded oil and gas company since 1978. He is chief executive officer of MGM Energy Corp. and is chairman of the board of Perpetual Energy Inc. and Trilogy Energy Corp.

CALGARY FLAMES OWNERS

Allan P.
MARKIN

Allan P. Markin is a native Calgarian, and long-time philanthropist.

Presently Mr. Markin is a major supporter of the Alberta Project Promoting active Living & Healthy Eating in Schools (APPLE Schools) program, at the University of Alberta, School of Public Health. The program has expanded since inception, and is now running in 57 Alberta schools, serving urban, rural, and First Nations, Metis and Inuit students. In 2012 Mr. Markin committed to enhancing the APPLE Schools program by integrating principles set out in the "FranklinCovey" Leader in Me program into existing APPLE Schools. The gift will also allow the School of Public Health to evaluate the impact of Leader in Me on children's physical fitness, eating habits and leadership skills.

In recognition of his tremendous support of education, Mr. Markin has received honorary degrees from the Universities of Alberta, Calgary, Lethbridge and St. Francis Xavier. Mr. Markin is a founder of St. Mary's University and was bestowed an honorary fellowship from St. Mary's University in 2004. In accepting the Fraser Institute's T. Patrick Boyle Founder Award in 2010, Mr. Markin spoke of individual value and personal responsibility.

The Mayor of the City of Calgary bestowed him with the Citizen of the Year award for 2004 and he received the Alberta Centennial Medal in 2005. In July 2008, Mr. Markin was appointed as an Officer of the Order of Canada by the Governor General. He received the Alberta Order of Excellence in October 2008. In the fall of 2009, he was inducted into the Calgary Business Hall of Fame. In March 2012, Mr. Markin was recognized as the Canadian Business Leader of the Year by the Alberta School of Business of the University of Alberta. In the summer of 2012, Mr. Markin was presented with the Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee Medal.

Another major benefactor of Mr. Markin's philanthropy has been health. Mr. Markin created a registered charity – the Pure North S'Energy Foundation, an innovative preventative health program focused on promoting a positive lifestyle as the foundation of a happy, healthy and long life. As of August 2012, Pure North had over 13,000 registered participants from a broad cross-section of backgrounds, with a special focus on inner-city and aboriginal populations, including many communities in northern Canada. The main focus is supplying dearly needed vital nutrients, and the reduction of heavy metals.

Although diversified, his main philanthropic objective is to enhance education tied to health and wellness.

Jeffrey J.
McCAIG

Jeffrey J. McCaig is chairman and chief executive officer of the Trimac Transportation group of companies. Trimac is the largest provider of bulk trucking services in North America and also provides complementary logistics services, including transload facility operations, distribution management, and freight brokerage.

In addition to being a director and chairing the boards of the Trimac Group of companies, Mr. McCaig is a director of Potash Corporation of Saskatchewan and Standard Life Assurance Company of Canada. He is also a director and chairman of Bantrel Company and a director and co-owner of the Calgary Flames Hockey Club and chairman of the Flames Foundation.

Mr. McCaig is a member of several Canadian and American industry associations related to the trucking industry and is past chairman of the National Tank Truck Carriers Association in Washington, DC.

He obtained his undergraduate degree in Economics from Harvard College in Cambridge, Massachusetts; his law degree from Osgoode Hall Law School in Toronto; and his Master of Science in Management degree from Stanford University.

Member of original Flames Ownership Group

Byron J.
SEAMAN

Byron J. Seaman was born in Rouleau, Saskatchewan. He received his Bachelor of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Saskatchewan in 1945 and spent one year as an instructor in Mechanical Engineering at that University. In October 1992 he received an Honorary Doctor of Science degree from the University of Saskatchewan. Mr. Seaman has over 50 years of experience in various positions in the oil, gas and resource industries on a world-wide basis. He served as Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Bow Valley Resource Services Ltd. of Calgary (subsequently Bover Inc.) from 1976 to 1987, then as Chairman until 1990. He has served as a Director on numerous boards and was a Director Emeritus of Provident Energy Trust.

Mr. Seaman has served as a liaison for the Canadian Federal and Provincial Governments in providing management assistance to developing countries and was a member of the Premier's Advisory Council on Science and Technology in Alberta from 1990 to 92. Involved with numerous political, charitable and community organizations, Mr. Seaman received a special award in 1987 from the Association of Professional Engineers, Geologists and Geophysicists of Alberta in recognition of his outstanding contribution to society. In 1991, he was inducted into the Saskatchewan Oil & Gas Industry Hall of Fame and was a recipient of the Governor General's Medal in 1993. On June 1, 2007, he was inducted into the Alberta Sports Hall of Fame together with his brother D.K. Seaman and Harley Hotchkiss, as builders who brought the NHL Atlanta Flames to Calgary.

PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Ken King will tell you professional hockey has the best fans of any sport. And he grins every time the C of Red spontaneously rocks the Saddledome to prove it.

President and Chief Executive Officer of the NHL franchise Calgary Flames since summer 2001, King appreciates the value and community pride created through one of only 30 NHL teams in the world. "Making people happy is a dream job," says King who recognizes the tremendous obligation the Flames owe their fans.

Like you, King has an overwhelming fondness for the sport. And his aspiration every season is to raise the bar another notch to reward devoted fans with the best possible entertainment package in the NHL. He appreciates the enduring fan loyalty and the excitement surrounding the regular season. He's also proud to have watched fans enjoy heart-wrenching, but electrifying, playoff runs for the Stanley Cup.

King is a strong believer in contributing to the community and he knows incredible achievements can be accomplished when aspiration and determination mix with a visionary approach, meaningful intentions, responsible actions and, above all, consideration for others. His current community involvement spans numerous organizations, including chairman, TELUS Community Board, past co-chair of REACH (a $300-million medical fundraising initiative), the Calgary Committee to End Homelessness, the Calgary Sport Tourism Authority, the Calgary Exhibition & Stampede, Borden Ladner Gervais CIAU Athlete of the Year Awards Committee and the Rotary Club of Calgary. Previous support and commitment involved the Calgary Prostate Cancer Centre, Calgary Philharmonic Society, No Ka Oi Ranch Foundation and past chairman of the Calgary Chamber of Commerce.

In 2005, King received an Alberta Centennial Medal for outstanding contributions to the province of Alberta. Other awards include the Queen's Golden Jubilee Medal for community service and the commemorative medal for the 125th Anniversary of the Confederation of Canada. In 1991, he was honoured as B'Nai Brith Man of the Year.

Born and raised in Hanley, Saskatchewan, King launched a 30-year career in the newspaper business that included senior executive positions in Canada's leading newspapers including President and Publisher of the Calgary Sun and Calgary Herald. During his newspaper career in Calgary, King was acknowledged for his innovative marketing, establishment of healthy corporate relationships, spirited community leadership and appreciable growth for the newspapers.

King is an avid but mediocre golfer and like many other Albertans, shares a passion for horses. Most often he stays in the saddle. But not always. He and his wife, Marilyn, have two daughters and they are proud grandparents to Amanda's twin boys and Jocelin's son and baby girl.

King also serves as an Alternate Governor of the NHL and President and Chief Executive Officer of the Western Hockey League's Calgary Hitmen, President of the National Lacrosse League's Calgary Roughnecks and Co-Chair/Alternate Governor of the Calgary Stampeds.

GENERAL MANAGER

Jay FEASTER

Jay Feaster is in his second season as the Flames General Manager. After being named the Acting General Manager on December 27, 2010 his role as the Calgary Flames General Manager was made official on May 16, 2011. Feaster joined the Flames organization at the start of the 2010-11 season as an Assistant General Manager looking to expand on his impressive resume, which includes a Stanley Cup Championship as General Manager of the Tampa Bay Lightning in 2004 and a Calder Cup Championship as the president of the Hershey Bears (American Hockey League) in 1997.

The native of Williamstown, PA was originally named General Manager of the Lightning on February 10, 2002. In addition to a Stanley Cup championship, the Lightning won back-to-back Southeast Division titles in 2002-03 and 2003-04. Feaster was named the 2004 Sporting News NHL Executive of the Year based on a vote of other NHL GM's and hockey executives. Prior to being named General Manager, he spent three seasons with the club in the Assistant General Manager's position. In that capacity, Feaster was responsible for all contractual, collective bargaining and NHL legal issues, as well as the organization's scouting department and its developmental league affiliates.

To join the Lightning, Feaster resigned his post as president of the Hershey Bears and vice-president of Hershey Entertainment. In that capacity, Feaster oversaw the operations of the Bears, the Hershey Wildcats professional soccer team and Hersheypark Arena/Stadium, including the Star Pavilion.

Feaster, who spent nine years with the Bears, led the team to a division title (1993-94) and a Calder Cup Championship (1997), while establishing three consecutive single-season attendance records (1991-92 to 1993-94) and entering into a five-year affiliation agreement with the NHL's Colorado Avalanche. For his work, he was named the AHL's Executive of the Year in 1997. He originally joined Hershey Entertainment as assistant to the President in 1989 and was named General Manager of the Bears and Hersheypark Arena/Stadium in 1990. Prior to joining Hershey Entertainment, Feaster practiced law with the firm of McNees, Wallace & Nurick in Harrisburg, PA. Feaster is a Summa Cum Laude graduate of Susquehanna University and a Cum Laude graduate of the Georgetown Law Center in Washington, DC.

Jay Feaster and his wife Anne have five children; Theresa, Bobby, Libby, Ryan and Kevin.

SENIOR VICE-PRESIDENT AND ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER OF HOCKEY OPERATIONS

Michael HOLDITCH

The 2012-13 season marks Michael Holditch's 19th season with the Calgary Flames. This is his third year in the role of Senior Vice-President and Assistant General Manager. Holditch works closely with General Manager Jay Feaster and Director of Hockey Administration Mike Burke on the direction of all hockey operations including CBA interpretation, team development, administration and tracking of the player budget, player negotiations, arbitration, scheduling and contract review and documentation.

Holditch joined the Flames organization in 1994. Prior to moving to the hockey operations group, Holditch was the vice-president of finance and chief financial officer for the organization. Michael was also an alternate governor of the Western Hockey League's Calgary Hitmen for five years through the 2002-03 season and sat on the WHL's Executive Committee for two years. Michael is a past treasurer of the Flames Foundation, the charity that is responsible for many of the organization's charitable initiatives – Holditch remains on the Board of Directors of this foundation.

Michael Holditch is a native Calgarian who attended the University of Calgary, graduating with a Bachelor of Commerce degree in 1988. Upon completion of his undergraduate degree he qualified for and practiced as a Chartered Accountant in Calgary.

Michael Holditch and his wife Cara have two daughters; Brynn and Cade.

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

John
WEISBROD

John Weisbrod, a native of Syosset, NY, is in his second season as the Flames Assistant General Manager in charge of player personnel. Prior to joining the Flames, Weisbrod was part of the Boston Bruins Stanley Cup championship team in 2011 where he was the director of pro and collegiate scouting since joining the organization in September 2006. Prior to that, John spent the 2005–06 season as a pro scout for the Dallas Stars out of the New England region.

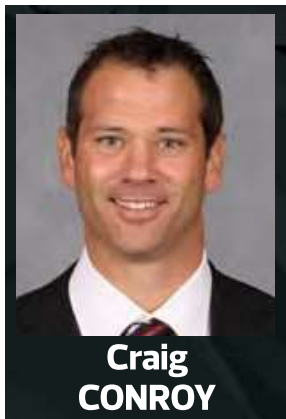

The Harvard graduate became the general manager/director of operations for the Albany River Rats (affiliate of the New Jersey Devils) in 1993 and won the Calder Cup as AHL Champions in 1995. Additionally, he served as the general manager of the Orlando Solar Bears winning the Turner Cup as IHL Champions in 2001.

When the IHL disbanded, the Solar Bears owner promoted him into the Magic organization in an administrative position. However, he was soon promoted to general manager and chief operating officer of the NBA's Orlando Magic for 2004–05 season before returning to hockey in May 2005.

Weisbrod attended and played hockey for Harvard from 1987 to 1991 capturing an NCAA National Championship in 1989, while earning a Bachelor of Arts degree in English.

Weisbrod was drafted by the Minnesota North Stars 4th round (73rd overall) in the 1987 NHL Entry Draft. Because of injury, Weisbrod took the year off hockey in 1991–92, only to play 16 games with the Kansas City Blades of the IHL before being forced to retire due to injury.

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Craig
CONROY

Craig Conroy is in his second season as the Special Assistant to General Manager Jay Feaster.

Conroy started his illustrious career at Clarkson University in his hometown of Potsdam, NY, before being drafted by the Montreal Canadiens in the 6th round (123rd overall) of the 1990 NHL Entry Draft. He finished his four years at Clarkson followed by three years split between Montreal and Fredericton.

At the start of the 1996 season, Conroy was traded to the St. Louis Blues where he spent the next five years of his career before being traded to the Calgary Flames in March 2001. During the 2001–02 season, he scored a career-high 75 points, helping Jarome Iginla reach the 50-goal plateau for the first time in his career. Conroy continued to produce offensively and was a major contributor in the teams' 2004 Stanley Cup Playoffs run. After signing with Los Angeles during the summer of 2004, Craig returned to the Flames on January 30, 2007.

During his career, he amassed a total of 1009 games with 507 of those games being played in a Flames uniform. On October 28, 2010 he celebrated his 1000th career game in front of Flames fans at the Scotiabank Saddledome before retiring from the NHL in February 2011 after 17 seasons spent with Montreal, St. Louis, Los Angeles and Calgary. During his career he recorded 542 points including 182 goals while notching another 30 points in 81 playoff games.

Craig Conroy and his wife Jessie have three daughters; Taylor, Sophia and Sydney.

DIRECTOR, HOCKEY ADMINISTRATION

Mike
BURKE

The 2012-13 NHL season represents Mike Burke's 30th year with the Calgary Flames. Since the start of the 1994-95 campaign, when Burke moved to the hockey department and was promoted to his current position, he has been responsible for the administration of the hockey club. He works closely with General Manager Jay Feaster and Senior Vice-President and Assistant General Manager Michael Holditch in managing many facets of the Flames hockey operations.

Burke's vast experience in hockey-related issues has made him a valuable part of the hockey staff. His main responsibilities include contract research, analysis and negotiation, player assignments, preparation of salary arbitrations, liaison between the NHL and the Flames regarding all aspects of hockey administration, monitoring collective bargaining issues and helping coordinate the day-to-day operations of the club.

Prior to his current appointment, Burke was responsible for the Club's media relations and communications. A graduate of the Public Relations program at Mount Royal College, Burke began his sports administration career with the Saskatoon Blades (WHL) in 1980 before serving two seasons as general manager of a minor-pro team in the Montreal Expos' organization. He has often worked with the NHL in both NHL All-Star games and NHL Stanley Cup Final events. In 1996, Burke was added as a member of Team Canada's hockey operation staff for the World Cup of Hockey tournament.

A native of Plato, Saskatchewan, Burke and his wife Sandra have two children; Keaton and Reid.

DIRECTOR, VIDEO AND STATISTICAL ANALYSIS

Chris
SNOW

Chris Snow is in his second season with the Flames as the Director of Video and Statistical Analysis utilizing the PUCKS system. Prior to joining the Flames, Snow spent four seasons as director of hockey operations with the Minnesota Wild. His responsibilities included analyzing team rosters and cap commitments for the purpose of strategic roster planning, preparing for contract negotiations and arbitration, assisting in day-to-day hockey administration and CBA interpretation, developing and managing hockey databases, professional scouting and coordinating the team's sports psychology program.

Prior to entering the hockey business, Snow was a staff writer for the Boston Globe, where he worked as the Boston Red Sox beat writer. A graduate of Syracuse University, he has also worked for the Minneapolis Star Tribune as the Minnesota Wild beat writer.

A native of Melrose, Massachusetts, Chris resides in Calgary with his wife Kelsie and their son Cohen.

HEAD COACH

Bob Hartley, a native of Hawkesbury, Ontario, brings a wealth of experience and success to the Flames having coached the Colorado Avalanche for five seasons, during which they won the 2001 Stanley Cup. Hartley was also the coach of the Atlanta Thrashers for parts of five seasons. In addition to his most recent Swiss League title with the ZSC Lions in Zurich, he led the Hershey Bears to the 1997 Calder Cup and also has Junior A and Major Junior championship rings among his accomplishments.

Hartley began his coaching career with the Junior A team in his hometown of Hawkesbury. After guiding the club to two championships, he was named head coach of the Laval Titan of the QMJHL. Over two seasons with the Titan he compiled an 81–52–7 record, a league championship and an appearance in the 1993 Memorial Cup. Hartley's junior success was rewarded when the Quebec Nordiques hired him as an assistant coach of their American Hockey League affiliate, the Cornwall Aces. It only took one season before he took the reins as head coach in 1994, guiding the Aces to two division titles during the team's three year history.

When the Nordiques relocated to Colorado, Hartley became the head coach of their AHL affiliate, the Hershey Bears. Once again, his tenure with the Bears was a success as he guided the team to two consecutive playoff appearances and a Calder Cup title in 1997. A season later, Hartley was hired as the Colorado Avalanche bench boss. During his five seasons, the Avalanche won four division titles and made four appearances in the conference finals. Hartley's third season was ultimately his most successful one as Colorado steam-rolled through the league with a 52–16–10–4 record, a division title along with the President's Trophy and the Stanley Cup. Hartley's tenure with the Avalanche franchise ended in December 2002 with a 193–109–48 regular season record and a 49–31 playoff record. His 193 wins are a franchise record. Hartley became the only coach in team history to record 40 or more wins during his first four seasons as head coach.

One month later, Hartley was appointed head coach of the Atlanta Thrashers. He guided the young Thrashers through four seasons of steady improvements but it was the 2006–07 campaign in which they won their first Southeast Division title, setting new franchise records for wins and points with a 43–28–11 record, good enough for 97 points and third seed in the Eastern Conference. The team also clinched its first playoff berth in franchise history.

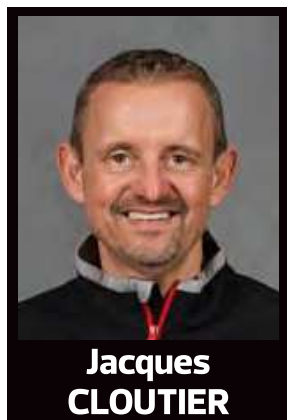

Hartley and his wife Micheline have a daughter, Kristine and a son, Steve.

ASSOCIATE COACH

Cloutier, a native of Rouyn-Noranda, Quebec, is in his first season as an associate coach with the Flames. Upon retirement from his playing career, Cloutier was hired as an assistant coach for the Nordiques' AHL affiliate, the Cornwall Aces. While coaching the Aces, Cloutier also served as a part-time goaltending coach for the Nordiques. In 1995-96 the Nordiques moved west to become the Colorado Avalanche and Cloutier moved with the team, becoming the full assistant coach. Midway through the 1995-96 season, Cloutier was promoted to assistant coach with the Avalanche. During his time as a coach in Colorado, Cloutier helped the Avalanche win the Stanley Cup in 1996 and again on Head Coach Bob Hartley's staff in 2001. He spent a total of 13 seasons as an assistant coach with the Avalanche concluding in 2009. Jacques most recently won the Swiss League title with the Bern ZSC Lions as an assistant coach to Bob Hartley.

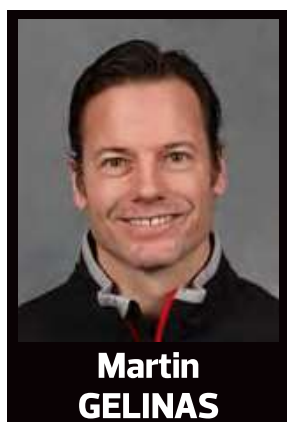

Cloutier had an impressive career starting in the QMJHL. In 1977-78, just his second year of major junior hockey, Cloutier played in 71 games, going 46-17-7 and helped lead the Draveurs to the Memorial Cup. The next season he played 72 games going 58-8-6 and captured the Jacques Plante Memorial Trophy for best goaltender in the QMJHL and again leading the Draveurs to the Memorial Cup.

The following season, Cloutier was selected in the 3rd round of the 1979 NHL Entry Draft by the Buffalo Sabres with the 55th pick overall. He started his professional career with the Rochester Americans and won the Calder Cup with them in 1983. Jacques made his NHL debut with the Buffalo Sabres during the 1981-82 season and played with the Sabres until the end of the 1988-89 season. He spent the 1989-90 season and part of the 1990-91 season with the Chicago Blackhawks before finishing his goaltending career after four years with the Quebec Nordiques retiring in 1994.

Jacques and his wife Lynn have two daughters; Julie and Jessica.

ASSISTANT COACH

Martin Gelin is in his first season as an assistant coach with the Calgary Flames. Most recently, Gelin served as the director of player development for the Nashville Predators, joining the staff following his retirement as a player in 2009.

In his 19-year NHL career, Gelin played in 1,273 games (62nd all-time at the start of this season) and scored 660 points. He played the 2002-03 and 2003-04 seasons with the Flames, and tied an NHL record by scoring three playoff series-clinching goals in the same year – including two in overtime – during the Flames' 2004 Stanley Cup run (and joining Ken Linseman in the record book in the process). "The Eliminator," as Gelin was known, is just one of a handful of players to have reached the Stanley Cup Finals with four different teams; the left-winger won a Stanley Cup in 1990 as a member of the Edmonton Oilers and also played in the NHL Finals in 1994, 2002 and 2004. He also played two professional seasons in Switzerland (2004-05 and 2008-09).

A native of Shawinigan, Quebec, Gelin made a splash in 1987-88 with the Hull Olympiques of the QMJHL with a 63-goal, 131-point campaign. He was named CHL Rookie of the Year in the process and selected seventh overall by the Los Angeles Kings in the 1988 NHL Entry Draft. But Gelin never suited up for the Kings. Two months after the draft, on August 9, 1988, he was included in the celebrated "Gretzky Trade" that sent Gelin, Kings centre Jimmy Carson, the team's first round picks in the 1989, 1991 and 1993 entry drafts, and a reported $15 million cash to Edmonton in exchange for Wayne Gretzky, Mike Krushelnyski and Marty McSorley.

Gelin played six games for the Oilers in 1988 before rejoining the Hull Olympiques. In his first full NHL season in 1989-90, Gelin had 25 points in 46 games, and won the Stanley Cup as Edmonton defeated the Boston Bruins in five games. Along with Joe Murphy and Adam Graves, he helped make up the popular Oilers' forward line known as "The Kid Line." Gelin was the last player from the 1980s Oilers' dynasty active in the NHL.

He was traded to the Quebec Nordiques during the 1993 NHL Entry Draft and played 31 games for Quebec before being claimed on waivers by the Vancouver Canucks. Gelin was a major factor in Vancouver's 1994 post-season run losing in seven games in the Stanley Cup Finals to the New York Rangers. He and goaltender Kirk McLean were traded to the Carolina Hurricanes on January 3, 1998, where he spent five seasons before joining the Calgary Flames. He went on to play a year in Switzerland during the 2004-05 season before signing with the Florida Panthers for the 2005-06 and 2006-07 seasons. He concluded his NHL career in 2007-08 as a member of the Nashville Predators, where his season was cut short by a knee injury. He was Nashville's Masterton Trophy nominee that year.

Gelin and his family have lived in Calgary since 2002. He and his wife Jane have three children; a son, Matthew, and daughters Cameron and Morgan. Matthew was selected by Swift Current in the 2010 Western Hockey League Bantam Draft.

GOALTENDING COACH

Clint
MALARCHUK

Clint Malarchuk is in his second season as the Goaltending Coach with the Flames following one season with the Atlanta Thrashers as the team's goaltending consultant. Malarchuk works with all goaltenders throughout the Flames system at the NHL and developmental league levels, as well as a mentoring role with amateur prospects.

He holds 20 years of professional experience as a player, 10 of which came in the NHL with the Quebec Nordiques (1981-84, 1985-1987), Washington Capitals (1987-89) and Buffalo Sabres (1989-1992). The Grande Prairie, Alberta, native was also the head coach of the Idaho Steelheads of the West Coast Hockey League from 1998-2000, the goaltending coach for the Florida Panthers from 2002-03 season, goaltending coach with the Columbus Blue Jackets from 2007-09, and most recently the goaltending coach with the Atlanta Thrashers during the 2010-11 season. Following the 1982-83 season as a member of the AHL's Fredericton Express, Malarchuk was the recipient of the Harry (Hap) Holmes Memorial Award and he also won the James Norris Memorial Trophy in 1992-93 as a member of the IHL's San Diego Gulls. Both trophies awarded to the goaltender posting the best goals against average.

SENIOR VIDEO ANALYST

Jamie
PRINGLE

Jamie Pringle, a native of Picton, Ontario, is in his second season with the Flames coaching staff after three seasons as the video coach with the Florida Panthers. Prior to that, Pringle spent the 2006-07 and 2007-08 season as the video coach for Hockey Canada. He was part of the staff for all international events including the 2006 Winter Olympics, winning gold at the 2007 IIHF World Championship and winning gold at the 2007 and 2008 IIHF World Junior Championships.

Pringle worked with Canada's 2008 World Junior team in the Super Series against Russia. Previously he spent the 2004-05 and 2005-06 seasons as the assistant coach with the Kingston Frontenacs (OHL) after four seasons as the assistant coach with the Belleville Bulls (1999-2004) where he helped earn the OHL title in 1999. He was also on staff with the Ottawa Senators during the 1995-96 season.

Jamie and his wife Karen have two children; Brendan and Brooke.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Rich HESKETH

DOUG GILMOUR - Player, 1988 to 1992, Inducted 2011

On June 28, 2011, it was announced that Douglas Robert Gilmour will be honoured with induction into the Hockey Hall of Fame. He was born June 25, 1963 in Kingston, Ontario, and had a 20-year NHL career.

In 1980-81, his first year with the Cornwall Royals (OHL), Gilmour was 5'9" and 150 pounds. After an early injury curtailed his effectiveness in Cornwall's 1981 Memorial Cup championship, he returned to score 46 goals and 119 points in 1981-82.

Cornwall repeated as Memorial Cup champions and Gilmour, who had been passed over in his first year of draft eligibility, was selected by the St. Louis Blues in the seventh round, 134th overall. He was returned to junior hockey by the Blues for the 1982-83 season and set the OHL on fire with 70 goals and 177 points, capturing the Eddie Powers Trophy as the OHL's leading scorer. He set a record with a 55 consecutive games scoring streak and was named the league's most valuable player.

St. Louis signed him and he joined the team two weeks before the 1983-84 season. The Blues' captain at the time, Brian Sutter, nicknamed Gilmour 'Killer' for his intensity.

After three full seasons hovering around 50 points, Gilmour began to play a more open game and during the 1986 playoffs, he had 21 points in 19 games when the Blues came within a game of advancing to the Stanley Cup Final. The next season, 1986-87, he finished the regular schedule with a career-high 42 goals and 105 points and was selected to represent Team Canada at the 1987 Canada Cup. He scored two important goals in the series against the Soviet Union and was instrumental in Canada's victory at the tournament.

After another solid season in St. Louis, Gilmour was traded to the Calgary Flames at the beginning of the 1988-89 campaign. In Calgary, Gilmour continued his strong play in the playoffs, adding 22 points in 22 games as the Flames won the Stanley Cup in 1989. Gilmour scored the series-winning goal in Game Six of the Final against Montreal. Halfway through the 1991-92 season he was traded to the Toronto Maple Leafs in a blockbuster deal involving 10 players; the largest trade in league history.

Gilmour set a Leafs franchise record with 127 points in his first full season with Toronto in 1992-93. He became only the second Leaf after Darryl Sittler to register over a hundred points in a season and also led the team to within a game of the Stanley Cup Final, placing second in playoff scoring and leading the league with 25 assists. Gilmour placed second to Mario Lemieux in the race for the Hart Trophy as the league's most valuable player but won the Selke Trophy as the top defensive forward, a remarkable achievement for a player with such offensive numbers.

Gilmour had 111 points the next season, earning his second consecutive spot in the All-Star Game. He once again led the Leafs to the semi-finals in the playoffs. Gilmour was named the team captain in 1994-95 before the lockout-shortened season and remained a popular player in Toronto even as the team began to struggle. When the Leafs went into rebuilding mode midway through the 1996-97 season, Gilmour was sent to the New Jersey Devils. He spent one full season with the defence-oriented Devils and was signed as a free agent by the Chicago Blackhawks in the summer of 1998.

In the spring of 2000, he was traded to the Buffalo Sabres, then signed on as a free agent with the Montreal Canadiens in October 2001 and went on to play parts of two seasons with the Habs before he was dealt back to Toronto at the trade deadline in 2003.

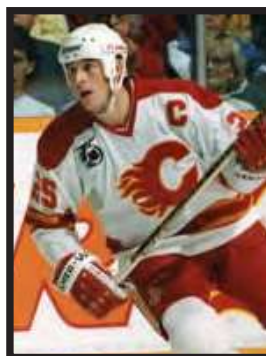

He officially announced his retirement on September 8, 2003. Gilmour registered 1414 points on the strength of 450 goals and 964 assists in 1,474 regular season games. He added 188 points (60 goals and 128 assists) in 182 playoff games.

On January 31, 2009, Gilmour became the 17th player to be honoured by the Toronto Maple Leafs when his number 93 was raised to the rafters of the Air Canada Centre.

JOE NIEUWENDYK - Player, 1986 to 1995, Inducted 2011

On June 28, 2011, it was announced that Joe Nieuwendyk would be honoured with induction into the Hockey Hall of Fame. Born in Oshawa, Ontario on September 10, 1966, and then raised in neighbouring Whitby, Joe Nieuwendyk played college hockey at Cornell University in New York State. Nieuwendyk spent three years on the Ivy League school's team and was twice named to the ECAC's First All-Star Team (1986 and 1987). He was also selected as an All-American in both years.

In 1985, after Nieuwendyk's freshman year at Cornell, the Calgary Flames were sufficiently impressed to draft him in the second round, 27th overall. In his first full season as a Flame (1987-88), the young centre scored 51 goals and 92 points, becoming only the second NHL player after Mike Bossy to score 50 goals in his rookie season. Nieuwendyk's totals also included an eye-popping 31 powerplay goals and 8 game-winners, and he was rewarded with the Calder Trophy as the league's top rookie.

In Nieuwendyk's second season with the Flames he won the Stanley Cup, again scoring 51 goals. In 1991, he was named captain of the Flames. When knee problems prevented Nieuwendyk from playing early in the 1995-96 season, the Flames found few takers on the trade market. Finally, in December 1995, the Flames traded Nieuwendyk to the Dallas Stars for Jarome Iginla and Corey Millen.

Nieuwendyk missed most of the 1998 playoff due to a knee injury. However, in 1999, his health and luck returned as Nieuwendyk scored 6 game-winning goals in the playoffs to lead the Stars to victory over the Buffalo Sabres in the Stanley Cup finals. That spring, he was recipient of the Conn Smythe Trophy as the playoff MVP.

Joe went on to play parts of two more seasons with the Stars before he was traded to the New Jersey Devils. Following his arrival in New Jersey, Nieuwendyk reached numerous milestones, including the 500 goal-plateau, 500 assists and 1,000 points.

In 2003, Nieuwendyk earned his third career Stanley Cup ring despite missing the Devils' Final due to injury. Later that summer he signed as a free agent with the Toronto Maple Leafs where he suited up for one season before opting to move on to the Florida Panthers in the summer of 2005.

Nieuwendyk's first season with the Florida Panthers saw the centre tally 56 points in 65 games, however, the club failed to qualify for the playoffs that spring. Due to chronic back problems, Nieuwendyk retired three months into his second season with the Panthers.

Joe Nieuwendyk left the NHL as one of the most respected players of his time, collecting 564 goals and 562 assists for 1,126 points through 1,257 regular season games. In playoff action, he added 66 goals and 50 assists for 116 points in 158 games.

Besides three Stanley Cup championships, Nieuwendyk won the Calder Trophy in 1988, the King Clancy Trophy (for dedication to his community) in 1995 and the Conn Smythe Trophy in 1999.

On the international stage, Nieuwendyk represented Canada at the 1986 World Junior Championships, at the 1990 World Championships, and is a two-time member of Canada's Winter Olympic team (1998 and 2002).

DARYL K. "DOC" SEAMAN - Owner, 1980 to 2009, Inducted 2010

On June 22, 2010, it was announced that Daryl K. "Doc" Seaman, a founding owner of the Calgary Flames, would be inducted into the Builder Category in the Hockey Hall of Fame.

Doc Seaman was born in Rouleau, Saskatchewan. He became one of Alberta's most successful oilmen and industrialists through his company, Bow Valley Industries, along with many other ventures. He and his brothers, B.J. and Don Seaman, were among the first wave of adventurous oilmen who pioneered the industry after the Second World War. Doc Seaman's war record was itself remarkable; he flew 82 successful combat missions out of North Africa as a sub-hunting pilot, earning a Government of France citation for bravery.

An original Calgary Flames owner, Doc Seaman followed the team passionately. Besides bringing the Flames to Calgary, he was a key player in building the Saddledome and bringing the 1988 Olympic Winter Games to Calgary.

A true hockey fan, Doc Seaman joined a small group of visionaries to save Canadian hockey from mediocrity at a time when the European game was becoming dominant. Canada's five straight junior hockey gold medal wins have their roots in Project 75, now called the Seaman-Hotchkiss Foundation. He was a strong supporter of Hockey Canada's grassroots development program.

Among his numerous awards and achievements, Doc Seaman was the founding governor of the Hockey Canada Foundation in 1979; named an Officer, Order of Canada in 1993; elected to the Alberta Sports Hall of Fame in 2007; and received the Alberta Order of Excellence in 2008.

Doc Seaman becomes the second member of the Flames ownership group to be elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame. Harley N. Hotchkiss received the honour as a member of the Class of 2006. Daryl K. "Doc" Seaman passed away on Sunday, January 11, 2009, at the age of 86.

AL MACINNIS - Player, 1981 to 1994, Inducted 2007

On November 12, 2007, Al MacInnis became the 10th member in the history of the Calgary Flames organization to be honoured with induction into the Hockey Hall of Fame.

Born Allan MacInnis on July 11, 1963, in Port Hood, Nova Scotia, he played junior hockey for the Kitchener Rangers beginning in 1980-81. During the summer of 1981, MacInnis was drafted in the first round, 15th overall, by the Flames. Although he played a handful of games for the Flames in both 1981-82 and 1982-83, MacInnis continued his junior career, which included a Memorial Cup championship in 1982.

After spending the early part of the 1983-84 season with the CHL's Colorado Flames, MacInnis became a full-time member of the Calgary Flames blue line later that season, playing 51 games and scoring 11 goals and 34 assists for 45 points.

MacInnis spent 13 seasons with Calgary before moving to St. Louis, but left Alberta having evolved into one of the most effective defencemen in the NHL. While with the Flames, he played in eight All-Star Games, but more importantly, was a key component of a Stanley Cup championship for Calgary in 1989, the first in franchise history. For his contributions in the playoffs that spring, including 7 goals and 24 assists in 22 games, MacInnis was awarded the Conn Smythe Trophy. In 803 games played, MacInnis recorded 822 points as a member of the Flames. He also holds the career franchise record for assists (609).

HARLEY N. HOTCHKISS - Owner, 1980 to 2011, Inducted 2006

On June 28, 2006, Flames co-owner Harley Hotchkiss received the prestigious honour of election to the Hockey Hall of Fame. Hotchkiss; the youngest of six children was raised on a farm near Tillsonburg, Ontario. He spent his winters on the pond playing hockey, emulating his beloved Toronto Maple Leafs. His idol was Syl Apps. In addition to dreaming of playing in the NHL, the young Hotchkiss also planned a second career in the business world, just in case. The game of hockey was the beneficiary of Harley's practical side as he has used his business success to ensure the growth and development of hockey in Canada.

An original member of the Flames ownership group, Harley Hotchkiss was among the group of local businessmen who introduced the National Hockey League to the City of Calgary in the spring of 1980. The pinnacle of their storied history occurred in 1989 when the Flames captured the Stanley Cup. Of his numerous contributions to the game, one of his most notable efforts and role on behalf of the NHL were to find a resolution to the NHL labour dispute that forced the cancellation of the 2004-05 season. Hotchkiss served six two-year terms as chairman of the NHL Board of Governors.

Harley Hotchkiss was an avid supporter of Hockey Canada and through his efforts the Flames continue to make annual financial contributions to Hockey Canada for the continued development and growth of the game. With the investment in bringing the NHL to Calgary, the purchase of the Flames funded the creation of the Centre of Excellence that offered coaching clinics, research in hockey development and sports injuries as well as athletic scholarships to Canadian universities. The introduction of Project 75 contributed over $8 million that is distributed by Hockey Canada to benefit the game throughout the country.

His involvement in hockey reached from the grassroots to the top branch. As a young college athlete at Michigan State University, Harley Hotchkiss was a member of the 1950 Spartans varsity hockey club. His generosity for other like-minded hockey people was continuously demonstrated as he has made contributions for the construction of hockey arenas throughout Canada including Fox Valley, Saskatchewan, and Aylmer, Ontario. Harley Hotchkiss passed away on June 22, 2011.

PETER MAHER - Play-by-Play, Inducted 2006

Calgary Flames play-by-play man Peter Maher was honoured by the Hockey Hall of Fame as the winner of the 2006 Foster Hewitt Memorial Award. Maher has been the voice of the Flames since the 1981-1982 season. A native of Campbellton, New Brunswick, Maher's success as a hockey play-by-play voice led to his induction into the New Brunswick Sports Hall of Fame in 1996. Maher has also called World Championship games, six NHL All-Star games, and the Stanley Cup Finals in 1980, 1986, 1989 and 2004.

The award, named in honour of the late Foster Hewitt is presented in recognition of members of the radio and television industry who have made outstanding contributions to their profession and to the game of hockey.

CLIFF FLETCHER - General Manager, 1972 to 1991, Inducted 2004

After an outstanding 48-year career that continues in the NHL, Cliff Fletcher was elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame as a Builder in 2004. Fletcher began his hockey career in 1956 with the Montreal Canadiens organization, starting as a scout under Sam Pollock. He joined the St. Louis Blues, eventually earning the role of Assistant General Manager, and helped manoeuvre the Blues into the Stanley Cup Final during the first three years of the franchise's existence. Fletcher was hired as the inaugural General Manager of the Atlanta Flames. He helped orchestrate the franchise's subsequent move from Atlanta to Calgary in time for the 1980-81 season. During Fletcher's regime with the Flames, his teams made the playoffs 16 straight seasons and finished first in their division in 1987-88, 1988-89 and 1989-90. In 1988-89, the Calgary Flames won the Stanley Cup. Lured to Toronto in 1991, Fletcher spent six seasons as chief operating officer, president and general manager of the Maple Leafs. He was named the 1993 Executive of the Year by The Hockey News. As a team, Toronto improved by an incredible 32 points from 67 points in 1991-92 to a franchise-high 99 points in 1992-93. Following two seasons with the Tampa Bay Lightning as senior advisor to the General Manager, Fletcher was hired by the Phoenix Coyotes as executive vice-president and general manager. He is currently the senior executive vice-president of hockey operations of the Coyotes.

GRANT FUHR – Player, 1999 to 2000, Goaltending Consultant, 2000 to 2002, Inducted 2003

Following a career that saw him attain over 400 NHL wins and amass five Stanley Cup championships, fittingly, Grant Fuhr was elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. Although all five Cups (1984, 1985, 1987, 1988, 1990) were collected while backstopping the Edmonton Oilers, Fuhr completed his career as a member of the Calgary Flames. On October 22, 1999, the Flames defeated the Florida Panthers and Fuhr attained his 400th career win and became only the sixth goaltender in NHL history to reach that milestone. Fuhr's accomplishments include six All-Star Game appearances, Vezina Trophy (1987), Jennings Trophy (1994) and two Canada Cup titles (1984 and 1987).

JOE MULLEN – Player, 1985–1986 to 1989–90, Inducted 2000

In 345 career games with Calgary (1985–86 to 1989–90), Mullen recorded 388 points (190 G, 198 A). In 17 NHL seasons (1979–80 to 1996–97) with St. Louis, Calgary, Pittsburgh and Boston, the three-time Stanley Cup winner recorded 1,063 points (502 G, 561 PTS) in 1,062 games. Mullen played in NHL All-Star games (1989, 1990 and 1994). He has won the Lady Byng Trophy (1987, 1989), NHL First All-Star Team (1989), NHL +/- Leader (1989), and won the Lester Patrick Trophy (1995).

MICHEL GOULET – Scout, 2010 to present, Inducted 1998

Michel Goulet, a native of Peribonka, Quebec, played 1,089 regular season NHL games scoring 548 goals, 604 assists for 1,152 points and 825 penalty minutes. He started his pro career with the Birmingham Bulls in the World Hockey Association in 1978–79. Following the NHL/WHA merger, Goulet was declared eligible for the 1979 Entry Draft and was selected by the Quebec Nordiques. He spent 11 seasons with the Nordiques before being traded to the Chicago Blackhawks during the 1989–90 season. Goulet was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1998, alongside former teammate Peter Stastny.

Goulet's number 16 was retired by the Nordiques before a large crowd at le Colisée de Québec where he enjoyed his most productive years. Goulet won two Stanley Cups with the Colorado Avalanche in 1996 and 2001 as director of player personnel.

GUY LAPOINTE – Assistant Coach and Scout, 1990–91 to 1998–99, Inducted 1993

Lapointe played 16 seasons in the NHL with the Montreal Canadiens, St. Louis Blues and Boston Bruins. One of the great players in the history of the game, Lapointe captured six Stanley Cup championships with the Canadiens ('71, '73, '76, '77, '78 and '79). Lapointe, along with teammates Serge Savard and Larry Robinson, formed one of the top defence corps in the NHL. In 884 career games, Lapointe recorded 622 points (171 G, 451 A).

LANNY MCDONALD – Player, 1981–82 to 1988–89, Management, '89 – '00 to '01 – '03, Inducted 1992

On September 21, 1992, Lanny McDonald became the first Calgary Flames player to be inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame. McDonald finished his NHL career with 500 goals, 506 assists and 1,006 points in 1,111 games—all milestone achievements. He played 492 career games with the Flames recording 406 points (215 G, 191 A). McDonald won the Bill Masterton Trophy (1982–83), the King Clancy Memorial Trophy (1987–88) and was named NHL Man-of-the-Year in 1988–89. He still holds the Flames record for most goals in a season (66 G, 1982–83) and scored the go-ahead goal in Calgary's Stanley Cup clinching win at Montreal in 1989.

BOB JOHNSON – Head Coach, 1982–83 to 1986–87, Inducted 1992

Robert "Badger Bob" Johnson was one of hockey's greatest boosters both in Calgary and throughout North America. He led Calgary to the franchise's first 40-win season in 1984–85 and posted a Flames coaching record of 193–155–52 in 400 games. Johnson posted a career coaching record of 234–188–58 with Calgary (1982–83 to 1986–87) and Pittsburgh (1990–91). He led the Penguins to a Stanley Cup championship in 1991. "It's a great day for hockey" is a remark hockey fans will always remember.

GLENN HALL – Goaltending Consultant, 1988 to 2000, Inducted 1975

During his 18 seasons in the NHL, Glenn "Mr. Goalie" Hall posted a 2.51 GAA and was consistently recognized as a top goaltender, being selected to the All-Star team 11 times. Hall led the NHL in shutouts for six seasons, including his rookie campaign when he won the Calder Trophy and had 84 regular season career shutouts. Hall still holds the record for most consecutive games by a goaltender, with 502, and appeared in 906 league games. He captured three Vezina Trophies, the Conn Smythe Trophy, one Stanley Cup and 13 All-Star game appearances. In 1988 the Chicago Blackhawks retired Hall's jersey.

CALGARY FLAMES COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Since its creation in 1983, the Flames Foundation for Life has served as the charitable arm of the Calgary Flames Hockey Club, offering much-needed funding to varied and far-reaching charities. Continuously evolving over its years in operation, the Flames Foundation now provides millions of dollars in contributions to these key pillars: amateur and grassroots sports, health, medical research and education. In keeping with the original mandate of the ownership group, the Flames Foundation for Life strives to bring positive change to the lives of thousands of southern Albertans.

Calgary Flames Celebrity Charity Golf Classic

Before the Calgary Flames hit the ice, the entire team, alumni, management, owners and hockey personnel hit the greens with sponsors and fans for a day of golf. This year's tournament took place at two golf courses with players meeting back at the Scotiabank Saddledome. This year's classic marked the 32nd anniversary of the signature event, with funds raised to date totaling more than $5 million. The Calgary Flames Celebrity Charity Golf Classic held on September 13, 2012 raised $340,000 for the Flames Foundation for Life.

Danone SuperSkills

SuperSkills is a chance for Flames players and Calgary minor hockey players to take to the ice to compete in this fun-filled event for skill titles. The Calgary Flames annual skills competition supports both minor hockey programming and two charities. All proceeds are directed to the Flames Foundation for Life and the NHLPA Goals & Dreams Fund. Over the past five years, the Danone SuperSkills competition has raised over $370,000 in support of both charities.

Flames Ambassadors Celebrity Poker Tournament

Every year, the entire Calgary Flames team and coaching staff, along with alumni and local celebrities come together to lay their cards on the table for the Flames Foundation for Life. The 2012 Celebrity Poker Tournament raised a record-breaking total of $550,000 for the Flames Foundation for Life, bringing the total raised over seven years in excess of $2.5 million.

Coaching Day in Alberta Powered by NSD

Coaches from around the province have the opportunity to learn from the best of the best at this year's Coaching Day in Alberta. This special clinic is an initiative that invites coaches and hockey administrators from across Alberta to attend a seminar on a wide range of coaching topics including skill development and off-ice training.

Reading . . . Give it a Shot!

This will mark the 17th season Flames players have been visiting Grade four, five and six students as part of the Reading . . . Give it a Shot! program. Last season's program included 55 schools and over 1,700 students. This Calgary Educational Partnership Foundation and Calgary Flames reading incentive program encourages students to read by combining player visits with a bookmark reward system. For every 100 minutes of reading, students are rewarded with a commemorative bookmark featuring Flames players.

Wheelchair Hockey

For over 30 years the Calgary Flames have been going to the Gordon Townsend School in the Alberta Children's Hospital for a game of wheelchair floor hockey, and for over 30 years the Townsend Tigers stand undefeated.

Alberta Children's Hospital Christmas Visit

Every December Calgary Flames players visit the Alberta Children's Hospital during the holiday season to make a special visit to patients while delivering a special gift.

Pond Hockey by ENMAX

This year will be the 14th season that the Calgary Flames will team up with ENMAX and Calgary Hockey Development to match minor hockey players with their NHL heroes. Evenings of Pond Hockey by ENMAX take place on outdoor community rinks in January and February with Flames players and members of Calgary minor hockey.

Flames and NHLOA Zebras Care

The National Hockey League Officials Association (NHLOA) in partnership with the Calgary Flames, KidSport Calgary and Hockey Calgary team up each season in the Zebras Care program. This is an opportunity for young athletes, selected by KidSport Calgary and Hockey Calgary, to watch a Flames game and meet NHL officials before puck drop. Officials take the time to answer questions and present the kids with a Flames jersey and other merchandise making sure they don't leave empty-handed.

Calgary Flames Better Halves Community Incentives

The Calgary Flames players' wives and girlfriends have embraced the team's commitment to the community by initiating new events and programs and participating in annual fundraisers each season.

Flames Better Halves Ultimate Ladies Night Out

Presented by Scotiabank

The fifth annual Ultimate Ladies Night Out event raised over $80,000 for the Flames Foundation for Life. The Better Halves walked the runway in fashions from CrossIron Mills retailers and assembled baskets of their families' favourite things for a silent auction.

Flames Better Halves Holiday Cookbook

The first annual "Ice to Ovens: Recipes from the Kitchens of the Calgary Flames" cookbook contained all of their best recipes straight from the homes of Calgary Flames players, coaches, alumni and their Better Halves.

Ronald McDonald House Cooking Nights

Flames Better Halves and families visit the Ronald McDonald House during the season to cook dinner for the residing families. The Ronald McDonald House is a home away from home for out-of-town families receiving treatment at the Alberta Children's Hospital.

CALGARY FLAMES PLAYER PROGRAMS

Through active community and player relations the Calgary Flames continue to endeavour, to develop and implement impactful and high profile community relations programs while establishing relationships with schools, youth sports, minor hockey and other charitable foundations.

While the Flames team programs continue to give back to the community, many Flames players also have personal commitments to charities and initiatives of their choosing. The players listed below have taken on additional personal commitments.

MIKAEL BACKLUND

Mikael Backlund has partnered with both the Kids Cancer Care Foundation of Alberta where he will donate $150 per point. He also donates tickets to the program youth over the season and attends events throughout the year.

JAY BOUWMEESTER

Jay Bouwmeester has aligned with the H.E.R.O.S. (Hockey Education Reaching Out Society) program for his third season. Bouwmeester donates tickets to program participants and visits events with the program youth where he speaks about the importance of education, leadership and respect.

CHRIS BUTLER

Chris Butler has created the Chris Butler's Big Deals program in support of Big Brothers Big Sisters. Chris will donate tickets and attend a meet-and-greet for a Big and their Little each month. He will also promote the organization and attend key events.

MARK GIORDANO

Mark Giordano is a spokesman for Habitat for Humanity and appears in many of the organizations communication materials. He and his wife Lauren are chairs on the board of the Habitat for Humanity '5 for 5' initiative which raises funds for the construction of five homes in five different countries. Giordano donates $25,000 to the program each year. Giordano is also one of the faces of the Flames and Calgary Educational Partnership Foundation's Reading . . . Give it a Shot! program.

CURTIS GLENCROSS

Curtis Glencross continues his commitment to Special Olympics Calgary by making appearances at their athlete programs. Glencross has also partnered with the Gord Bamford Foundation which offers underprivileged youth and single parent families in Canada an equal opportunity in life by providing funds to support education, health care and music. Glencross also held the inaugural Glencross Invitational Charity Roughstock event raising over $180,000 for the Ronald McDonald House Southern Alberta and Hockey Alberta. The two-day event saw a poker tournament as well as a rodeo held at Daines Ranch.

JAROME IGINLA

Jarome Iginla continues to support KidSport Calgary and KidSport Canada, donating $2,000 for every goal he scores during the regular season. The Flames captain has raised over $6 million for the organization.

CALGARY FLAMES PLAYER PROGRAMS

MIIKKA KIPRUSOFF

Miikka Kiprusoff will donate $10.00 to the Children's Cottage Society for every save he makes during the 2012-13 regular season. The Flames goaltender has donated over $55,000 to the Rainbow Society of Alberta in the last three seasons.

CORY SARICH

Cory Sarich is the honorary chair of the Country Hills Classic presented by the Mavericks Chuckwagon Society which raises funds for the Flames Foundation for Life and Children's Link Society. This year's event in June raised over $225,000 for Children's Charities.

MATT STAJAN

Matt Stajan is a spokesperson for the Alberta Children's Hospital. The Flames forward donated a set of season tickets to youth receiving care at the hospital and will participate in the Hospital's fundraising activities and events.

LEE STEMPIAK

Lee Stempniak is one of the faces of the Flames and Calgary Educational Partnership Foundation's Reading ... Give it a Shot! program. Stempniak will visit schools this season to reinforce the positive effects of literacy.

ALEX TANGUAY

Alex Tanguay has partnered for the third season with the Canadian Cancer Society directed to stomach cancer research. Tanguay donates $200 per assist during the regular season, or a minimum donation of $10,000, to the national cancer organization's Alberta/NWT division. Last season Tanguay donated $10,000.
